DIVINE MERCY IN MY SOUL (continued)

Jesus, I trust I You! Oh, how painful it is to me that souls so seldom unite themselves to me in Holy Communion. I wait for souls, and they are indifferent toward me. I love them tenderly and sincerely, and they distrust me. I want to lavish my graces on them, and they do not want to accept them. They treat me as a dead object, whereas my heart is full of love and mercy. In order that you may know at least some of my pain, imagine the most tender of mothers who has great love for her children. While those children spurn her love. Consider her pain. No one is in a position to console her. This is but a feeble, feeble image and likeness of my love. Write, speak of my mercy. Tell souls where they are to look for solace; that is, in the Tribunal of Mercy (the sacrament of reconciliation). There the greatest miracles take place (and) are incessantly repeated. To avail oneself of this miracle, it is not necessary to go on a great pilgrimage or to carry out some external ceremony; it suffices to come with faith to the feet of my representative and to reveal to him one's misery, and the miracle of Divine Mercy will be demonstrated. Were a soul like a decaying corpse so that from a human standpoint, there would be no (hope of) restoration and everything would already be lost, it is not so with God, The miracle of Divine Mercy restores that soul in full. Oh, how miserable are those who do not take advantage of the miracle of God's mercy! You will call out in vain, but it will be too late. (Diary, 1447 and 1448)

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Charlemagne, crowned Holy Roman Emperor on Christmas Day, 800, had a major interest in shaping the worship life of the church, and began a long period of reform and regulation.

We owe many confirmation policies and practices to his rule. A baptized person was required to be confirmed as soon as the bishop's presence made it possible. Priests were expected to do their best in seeing to it that a newly-baptized child received the Eucharist. One twelfth-century ritual insists that if the child is not yet capable of eating or drinking, then the priest might give him or her some of the Precious Blood on a leaf or a finger. Despite the best efforts of the Empire to hold liturgical life together, the rules were not always lived out with great beauty. St. Richard of Chichester of thirteenth-century England, for example, was canonized for his holy life as a bishop. One of the remarkable signs of his sanctity was his willingness to climb down from his horse to confirm "merely baptized" layfolk who crossed his path! This praiseworthy practice points a finger of blame at less zealous bishops, whose casual attitudes revealed a sacrament in need of rescue.

WORDS AND WEEDS

A man of words and not of deeds
Is like a garden full of weeds.
—Anonymous nursery rhyme

DO

Do what you can, with what you have, where you are.

—Theodore Roosevelt

PATIENTLY AWAITING JUDGMENT

Matthew, more than any other evangelist, talks about Jesus leaving and returning home. Often Jesus leaves the house because crowds have assembled outside and want to be taught. Today, after having taught and dismissed the crowds, his disciples follow him home, seeking further explanation of what seem to be, at least to us today, pretty straightforward parables.

For both Matthew and Mark, when Jesus is in the house with his disciples it signals a special teaching moment, and it should cause us today to perk up our ears. Usually it is Jesus giving commonsense advice about what it will mean to follow him. Today is no different. To follow Jesus means to be ready to encounter the followers of evil, to have to live and work and preach among them. It means patiently awaiting the judgment that can only come from God, the judgment of justly deciding who will be thrown into the flame and who will live to be a brightly shining saint. Let us heed this house-teaching, for it will be the same for us who follow Jesus Christ today. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

DID YOU KNOW THAT PARTICIPATION AT MASS

reflects our reverence to the presence of the Lord? With keeping this in mind, as we attend Mass we ought to participate as follows:

Arriving at church before Mass has begun which helps us to have time to meditate on the love and respect for Our Lord who has gathered us together to share His gifts.

Remembering the acts of reverence:

- Making the sign of the cross with the holy water
- Genuflecting as best we can before entering the pew and upon leaving
- Staying after Communion which allows us time to give thanks for the precious gift that was received
- At the conclusion of Mass remaining in the pew until the priest has proceeded down the aisle
- Using a soft voice in Church not to disturb others in this house of prayer.

Remembering that any food, drink or chewing gum is inappropriate to be eaten or drunk during Mass. For a young child a light snack is acceptable if necessary.

Remembering to turn off all cell phones, beepers and Ipads upon entering church as not to disturb others and keeping the reverence of the Mass being celebrated.

As Archbishop Fulton Sheen said that courtesy "is the homage of the heart to the sacredness of human worth" (Thoughts for Daily Living, p. 50). Manners, whether at Mass or in other situations, reveal the value we place on each other and God.
