

DO YOU KNOW WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT PROPER DRESS FOR CHURCH?

Every church has a dress code which varies from what to wear for Mass, what to wear for a Mid-Winter Ball and what to wear while working at a Festival.

There are some that say it doesn't matter what a churchgoer wears as long as he/she goes to Mass. It does matter because the way you dress speaks volumes about who you are and how you dress does impact those around you. If a churchgoer dresses too casually to attend Mass it might say something about their expectations for the Mass. Then again should I dress up in my finest clothes.....If so am I dressing up for God or other church members?

Simply what you are wearing to attend church services is not addressed in the Bible. However a churchgoer should refrain from wearing inappropriate clothing for example short skirts, short shorts and beachwear.

However in 2 Corinthians 5:12- "We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you an opportunity to boast of us, so that you may have something to say to those who boast of external appearance rather than of the heart." Therefore, God wants
