DIVINE MERCY IN MY SOUL (continued)

O Most Holy Trinity! As many times as I breathe, as many times as my heart beats, as many times as my blood pulsates through my body, so many thousand times do I want to glorify Your mercy. I want to be completely transformed into Your mercy and to be Your living reflection, O Lord. May the greatest of all divine attributes, that of Your unfathomable mercy, pass through my heart and soul to my neighbor. Help me, O Lord, that my eyes may be merciful, so that I may never suspect or judge from appearances, but look for what is beautiful in my neighbors' souls and come to their rescue. Help me, that my ears may be merciful, so that I may give heed to my neighbors' needs and not be indifferent to their pains and moanings.

GO AND DO LIKEWISE

Miss Collins, the dean of students at Olympic High School, was past the point of scolding Matt, though she liked him very much. "Four detentions in two weeks are too many."

Still Matt wouldn't tell. It was only after Miss Collins went on a morning neighborhood patrol that she found out the real reason for Matt's tardiness. Thump, thump, thump, came the wheelchair down the stairs. It was Matt, steadying Shawnetta as he helped lower her down the stairs and then push her to the corner bus stop.

"She's a girl in my parish youth group," Matt explained to Miss Collins.

There are many ways to describe Matt's actions—a random act of kindness, making a difference one person at a time. Jesus would understand. When the lawyer correctly identified the good Samaritan as the one who had treated the injured man with compassion, Jesus said simply, "Go and do likewise" (Luke 10:37).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The first "presbyters" were advisers to the bishops rather than what we would call "priests," yet by the year 1000 our present-day understanding of the ordained priesthood is clearly in place. The Germanic influence was strong in those days, reflected in a series of questions posed to the candidate about his intentions.

The priest's role in the celebration of Mass had by then come to the fore, as the ritual notes that Mass vestments must be worn, the hands of the priest must be anointed with chrism, and a chalice with wine and water and a paten with a host must be given. Up to then, the ordination rite had stressed the presbyter as a collaborator with the bishop and a member of the order of presbyters. Then, in a not-so-subtle shift, the presbyter came to be seen as a "priest" designated to celebrate the Mass and, as the prayer suggests, to touch the chalice. By these days, remember, the cup had long vanished from Communion for the laity. A thousand years ago, today's patterns were already in place. The priest no longer saw himself as a member of a council of elders, a presbytery, and in some dioceses he had little influence over the bishop. Instead, he was either a pastor, with relationship to the eucharistic community in the parish, or he was a priest monk, offering Mass for the salvation of the departed or the intentions of the living.

DID YOU KNOW? Can we confess our sins directly to God or must we go to Confession?

The Sacrament of Penance or as it is more commonly referred to as Confession is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church which Jesus Christ instituted himself on Easter as he appeared to his disciples after his Resurrection. Jesus told his disciples "As the Father has sent me, so I send you. And when he said this he breathed on them and said to them: Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them and whose sins you retain are retained." (John 20:21-23)

The purpose of confession is our reconciling with God when we have sinned. When we sin, either mortal or venial sin, we deprive ourselves of God's graces. Yes we should make acts of contrition which are the prayers in which we tell God we are sorry for our sins and ask Him for His forgiveness. But the question misses the point of the Sacrament. The Sacrament restores grace to our souls and help us to avoid sin. This is why the Church requires us to receive it at least once per year. Also, it was instituted by Christ for his disciples and priests to forgive our sins in His name. To make a worthy confession one must be contrite (sorry for his/her sins), confess those sins and must be willing to do penance and make amends for his/her sins.

LET US KNOW AND WELCOME TO ALL WHO CELEBRATE WITH US-

SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED- We will be collecting NEW school supplies for children in need all summer until Labor Day. Sister Maureen Jerkowski, a Social Worker with Good Shepherd Family Services in the Bronx, said many families they serve are unable to buy school supplies for their children. We would love to be able to give those children supplies so they can have a good start to the new school year. Last year, with our donations, each Social Worker was able to give supplies to 4 of their neediest families. This year we would love to help out even more families. Can you help make that possible?

Needed items- NEW - crayola crayons, #2 pencils, pens, spiral single subject notebooks, marble composition books, filler paper, file folders, glue sticks, crayola markers, elmers washable school glue, erasers, crayola colored pencils, binders, and school scissors.
