DIVINE MERCY CONTINUED

“The Lord gave me much light to know His attributes. The first attribute that the Lord revealed to me is to know is His holiness. His holiness is so great that all the Powers and Virtues tremble before Him(...). The holiness of God is poured out upon the Church of God and upon every living soul, but not in the same degree. There are souls who are completely penetrated by God, and there are those who are barely alive. The second form of knowledge that the Lord granted me concerns His justice. His justice is so great and penetrating that it reaches deep into the heart of things, and all things stand before Him in naked truth. The third attribute He revealed is His love and mercy. And I understood that this is the greatest attribute. It unites the creature with the Creator. This immense love and abyss of mercy are made known in the Incarnation of the Word and in the Redemption [of humanity], and it is here that I saw this as the greatest of all God’s attributes” (Diary, 180).

HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: Why, of course he’d want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It’s exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this “common wisdom” makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes the treasures of art can provide us with clues about traditions. Take, for example, the miter, the conical hat with lappets, or back-flaps that fall to the shoulders. This cap is worn by bishops in the Catholic West. Eastern Catholics favor a crown, but we have this curious headpiece. In Greek, the word means “turban.” Old paintings and mosaics provide clues about headgear for bishops, and there is very little artistic evidence for the miter before the year 1000. Before then, some kind of head covering might have been worn to offset the damp and chill of unheated churches. The pope, as far back as the seventh century, often wore a cap called a camelaucum. Around that time, artists painting St. Peter began to portray their subject wearing this hat. By the year 1000 or so, the pope began to grant similar helmet-shaped headgear as gifts to visiting abbots and bishops. They returned home with these new chapeaus, and before long everybody wanted one!

Today, miters are granted not only to bishops, but to certain favored abbots and occasionally abbesses. Pope Benedict XVI set aside the tradition of the papal tiara in favor of the miter, even on his coat of arms. Pope Paul VI was the last pope to have a coronation. As recently as the 1960s, miters were towering skyscrapers of jewels and rich silks, but now a simplicity of style is favored by bishops. Miters are here to stay, and experienced altar servers know how to await the bishop’s removing of the miter, since he does not wear it when he is saying the presidential prayers or the Eucharistic Prayer.

DID YOU KNOW? Can we confess our sins directly to God or must we go to Confession?

The Sacrament of Penance or as it is more commonly referred to as Confession is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church which Jesus Christ instituted himself on Easter as he appeared to his disciples after his Resurrection. Jesus told his disciples "As the Father has sent me, so I send you. And when he said this he breathed on them and said to them: Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them and whose sins you retain are retained." (John 20:21-23)

The purpose of confession is our reconciling with God when we have sinned. When we sin, either mortal or venial sin, we deprive ourselves of God's graces. Yes we should make acts of contrition which are the prayers in which we tell God we are sorry for our sins and ask Him for His forgiveness. But the question misses the point of the Sacrament. The Sacrament restores grace to our souls and help us to avoid sin. This is why the Church requires us to receive it at least once per year. Also, it was instituted by Christ for his disciples and priests to forgive our sins in His name.

To make a worthy confession one must be contrite (sorry for his/her sins), confess those sins and must be willing to do penance and make amends for his/her sins.

WORRY

Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good. I know better. The things I worry about never happen. —Anonymous

PRAYER AND HUMILITY

Arm yourself with prayer rather than a sword; wear humility rather than fine clothes. —St. Dominic

WORDS AND ACTIONS

When people hear us speak God's word, they marvel at its beauty and power; when they see what little impact it has on our daily lives, they laugh and poke fun at what we say.—Anonymous second-century Christian

SOCIAL CONCERNS

SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED- We will be collecting NEW school supplies for children in need all summer until Labor Day. Sister Maureen Jerkowski, a Social Worker with Good Shepherd Family Services in the Bronx, said many families they serve are unable to buy school supplies for their children. We would love to be able to give those children supplies so they can have a good start to the new school year. Last year, with our donations, each Social Worker was able to give supplies to 4 of their neediest families. This year we would love to help out even more families. Can you help make that possible?

Needed items- NEW - crayola crayons, #2 pencils, pens, spiral single subject notebooks, marble composition books, filler paper, file folders, glue sticks, crayola markers, elmers washable school glue, erasers, crayola colored pencils, binders, and school scissors. New Backpacks and lunch boxes would also be appreciated.

Social Concerns- Needed Items- We are in need of these items year round- *Men's sneakers in good condition
*Travel sized Toiletries
*New Men's underwear and socks

Please leave all donations in the Social Concerns bins. Thanks

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY-- We will meet in September again, but our members will be busy all summer making shawls, baby blankets, baptismal blankets, and lap blankets.
