DIVINE MERCY IN MY SOUL (continued)

“Let the greatest sinners place their trust in My mercy. They have the right before others to trust in the abyss of My mercy. My daughter, write about My mercy towards tormented souls. Souls that make an appeal to My mercy delight Me. To such souls I grant even more graces than they ask. I cannot punish even the greatest sinner if he makes an appeal to My compassion, but on the contrary, I justify him in My unfathomable and inscrutable mercy. Write: before I come as a just judge, I first open wide the door of My mercy. He who refuses to pass through the door of My mercy must pass through the door of My justice...” (1146)

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The liturgy seems reluctant to return to Ordinary Time from the joys of Easter, and so the festivities extend to today’s celebration of the mystery of God’s relationship to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Gospel today centers the question of our relationship with God in the struggle of Nathaniel to believe that it is possible to experience “rebirth” in the Spirit. The answer of Jesus is that God’s response to the messes of this world is the mystery of saving love in Jesus Christ and the outpouring of an empowering Spirit.

Western church architecture often tops a church building with a spire, indicating humanity’s reach to a transcendent God. The Eastern Church responds with onion-shaped domes, indicating the Spirit’s being poured down upon humanity precisely at this locale, the gathering of the faithful for the Divine Liturgy. This familiar design encodes a great mystery: here, at the Lord’s table, we experience the outpouring of the Spirit for the life of the world. Nathaniel came to Jesus by night, since he was still working out the meaning of his life. A life attuned to the inner life of the Trinity must always be given to the light of day.

FATHERHOOD

When a father gives to his son, both laugh; when a son gives to his father, both cry.—William Shakespeare

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving kindness rather than silver and gold.

Proverbs 22:1

Dear God, our Heavenly Father,
 Thank you for the gift of our fathers. They protect us, provide for us, counsel us, and guide us. Our fathers motivate us to dream big and follow our dreams. They give us a truth to believe in, a vision to seek, a purpose to live for, and a destiny to fulfill. Our dads stand in Your place, O God, until the day we meet You, face to face.

Protect our fathers, guide them, and be a Father to them! Console them. Renew their faith, hope, and courage. Show them how to best lead and provide for their families in these challenging times. Give them joy and let them feel Your love in their hearts and Your peace in their souls.

Dear Saint Joseph, husband of Mary, pray for our fathers and give them your strength, your integrity, and your purity of heart. May they never lose heart in their sacred mission of leading their family to heaven. Amen.

THANK YOU:As the school year closes its time to say a special thank you to JANAN LANE, our director of Religious Education. Holy Name appreciates your time, your patience and your hard work throughout the year. Also, thank you to ANITA GHILARDI, Janan's secretary and right hand for her follow up on everything!

The Catechist is a gift to the Church. The gentle and often unnoticed ministry of the catechist is God's assurance that the Good News will be preached to the poor, that new members will be welcomed, that children will be nurtured in the faith, and that from birth through death the sacred treasures of faith will be handed on. As you grow in your mission, the family of faith supports your catechetical spirit.

For the seeds you have planted, and for the fields you have watered, we thank you.

May God give you growth – for all enduring time.

With Great thanks to all the Volunteers of our Religious Education Program.

DID YOU KNOW—What is the proper way to receive the Holy Communion?

There are clear guidelines on receiving Holy Communion Each Communicant should refrain from eating or drinking anything (except for water) for one hour prior to receiving the Eucharist, although exceptions are made for those who are sick and for the elderly. Also, each Communicant must be free of mortal sin. Venial sin does not make us unworthy of receiving Holy Communion; but it does prevent us from receiving the graces and blessings that we receive from Holy Communion. You may receive the Sacred Host either in your hand or on your tongue. The choice is yours. As the person in front of you is receiving Holy Communion, bow your head as a sign of reverence.

If you are receiving the Host in your hand, extend both hands palms up toward the Priest/Eucharistic Minister, placing one hand directly on top of the other hand. If you are right handed, the right hand goes on the bottom so you can receive the Host in your left hand and then pick it up with your right hand. If you are left handed, the other way around. The Priest/Eucharistic minister will hold the Host in front of you and say, "The Body of Christ." The correct response is simply "Amen" No other response should be said. The Priest/Eucharistic minister will then place the Host on your open palm. Do not attempt to grab the Host from the minister with your fingers.

Once the Host has been placed in your hand, step aside (to allow the person behind you to come forward to receive) and immediately consume the Host as you stand facing toward the altar. You should pick up the Host from the palm of your hand with the fingers of your other hand and reverently place the Host in your mouth.

However if you would like to receive the Host in your mouth, after the Priest/Eucharistic minister holds the Host in front of you and says The Body of Christ and you respond Amen, tilt your head backwards, slightly open your mouth and stick out your tongue. The Priest/Eucharistic Minister will then place the Host on your tongue. Once you feel the Host on your tongue, take the Host into your mouth with your tongue.

If you wish to receive the Precious Blood - the choice is yours - bow your head and shoulders slightly as the person before you is receiving from the chalice. Approach the Priest/Eucharistic minister and he will hold the chalice in front of you and say, "The Blood of Christ," to which you respond, "Amen." The Priest/Eucharistic minister will then hand you the chalice. Grasp the chalice firmly with both hands and bring it to your lips, taking care not to spill any of the Precious Blood within. Take a small sip of the Precious Blood and hand the chalice back to the minister who will wipe its rim to prepare it for the next communicant.

Do not carry the Host with the intention of dipping it into the Precious Blood. Communicants may not dip the Sacred Host into the chalice for two reasons: first because of the liturgical principle stated above, that the communicant should receive the Precious Blood rather than taking it (in this case, by dipping the Host into it); second because there is danger of dripping some drops of the Precious Blood.

Remember: when you receive the Host you are receiving the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. The same is true for receiving the Blood of Christ. Also, in order to receive from the cup you must first receive the Body of Christ.
