Divine Mercy Continued:

"I received a deeper understanding of divine mercy. Only that soul who wants it will be damned, for God condemns no one." (1452) "I have opened my Heart as a living fountain of mercy. Let all souls draw life from it. Let them approach this sea of mercy with great trust. Sinners will attain justification, and the just will be confirmed in good. Whoever places his trust in My mercy will be filled with My divine peace at the hour of death." (1520)

"Tell souls not to place within their own hearts obstacles to My mercy, which so greatly wants to act within them, My mercy works in all those hearts which open their doors to it. Both the sinner and the righteous person have need of My mercy. Conversion, as well as perseverance, is a grace of My mercy." (1578)

TRUST IN JESUS

Today's feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God's word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus. In today's Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the heart of today's solemnity is a eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide.

Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. "Before our mind's eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present." Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from "Corpus Christi" to "The Body and Blood of Christ" and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light.

FATHER'S DAY IS JUNE 18th

Spiritual Bouquet Father's Day cards are now available in the Church vestibules. You may return the free-will offering envelope to the Rectory, or drop it in the collection basket. Names submitted will be on the altar and remembered in a novena of Masses in June

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving kindness rather than silver and gold.

Proverbs 22:1

Dear God, our Heavenly Father,

Thank you for the gift of our fathers. They protect us, provide for us, counsel us, and guide us. Our fathers motivate us to dream big and follow our dreams. They give us a truth to believe in, a vision to seek, a purpose to live for, and a destiny to fulfill. Our dads stand in Your place, O God, until the day we meet You, face to face.

Protect our fathers, guide them, and be a Father to them!

Console them. Renew their faith, hope, and courage. Show them how to best lead and provide for their families in these challenging times. Give them joy and let them feel Your love in their hearts and Your peace in their souls.

Dear Saint Joseph, husband of Mary, pray for our fathers and give them your strength, your integrity, and your purity of heart. May they never lose heart in their sacred mission of leading their family to heaven. Amen

Our next HOLY HOUR will be Monday June 19th in the afternoon from 12-3pm. At noon there will be the Exposition and the Rosary and at 3 pm there will be Benediction and recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Fr Phil will be leaving the Exposed on the Altar. Therefore we will need people to sit with The Lord..if you are able to sit during that time for an hour please call the rectory.

FORMED-Want to learn more about your Religion, Saints or how the Knights of Columbus was formed try Formed This is an teaching venue with movies, books to download, programs and above all is free to all parishioners. There are flyers in the church foyers with instructions either attached or on the back on how to sign on and start watching and listening. It is like Netflix for Catholics with much more.

NATIONAL 54 ROSARY NOVENA- the Archdiocese of New York will participate in the National 54 Day Rosary Novena for Family and Marriage sponsored by the Rosary Evangelization Apostolate. This Novena will launch on August 15th and conclude on October 7th. This effort is to help bring spiritual renewal in the nation through the intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary. For information about the Novena, please check the website at www.54days.org

The Novena consists of five decades of the Rosary each day for twenty-seven days in petition; then immediately five decades each day for an additional twenty-seven days in thanksgiving, whether or not the request has been granted. The meditations vary from day to day. On the first day meditate on the Joyful Mysteries; on the second day the Sorrowful Mysteries; on the third day the Glorious Mysteries; on the fourth day meditate again on the Joyful Mysteries; and so on throughout the fifty-four days.
