DIVINE MERCY IN MY SOUL (continued)

O God of compassion, You alone can justify me and You will never reject me when I, contrite, approach Your Merciful Heart, where no one has ever been refused, even if he were the greatest sinner (Diary, 1730). [For Your Son assured me:] Sooner would heaven and earth turn into nothingness than would My mercy fail to embrace a trusting soul (Diary, 1777). Jesus, Friend of a lonely heart, You are my haven, You are my peace. You are my salvation, You are my serenity in moments of struggle and amidst an ocean of doubts. You are the bright ray that lights up the path of my life. You are everything to a lonely soul. You understand the soul even though it remains silent. You know our weaknesses and, like a good physician, You comfort and heal, sparing us sufferings — expert that You are (Diary, 247).

SHARING OUR GIFTS

Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns? TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Earlier this autumn, we looked at how our Eucharistic Prayers have been enriched by the approval of several new prayers to augment the old Roman Canon. For us, there are the four standard prayers, three for Masses with Children, and the most recent addition, the former Swiss Eucharistic Prayer with four alternative forms (now known as the Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Occasions).

We also have two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation. The source for these two prayers is the request by many bishops for a special prayer for the "Holy Year" of 1975. Originally, the committee in charge was commissioned to write a single prayer, but the theme proved so rich that it gave rise to two. The first is based on and develops biblical texts on reconciliation. The second starts with the experience of living in today's fractured world, and how the Spirit calls us to reconciliation and peace. Not everyone was happy with all this creativity, saying that if too many were published, it would be difficult for the Vatican to control further requests. Everyone thought the pope would put strict limits on the prayers, but in the end he said he was willing to open doors that had long been closed. Although he approved them for a period of only three years, they were never formally removed from the Sacramentary and have been incorporated into the new Roman Missal.—Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

THANKSGIVING ECUMENICAL SERVICE
Our annual community Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will be here at Holy Name of Jesus on Tuesday evening, November 21st, at 7:30 p.m. This gathering of Roman Catholic, Methodist, and Muslim congregations celebrates our commitment to inter-faith dialogue as we give thanks for the many blessings of faith, family, and community. An offering will be collected to benefit the Ecumenical Food Pantry in White Plains, and non-perishable food items may be brought as well. A reception will follow in the gym

THANKSGIVING MASS will be on Wednesday Evening at 7pm. In order to accommodate our people wishing to come to the Thanksgiving Service Fr Phil has changed the Mass from Thursday morning to Wednesday evening, Thanksgiving Eve at 7pm. There will be no Mass on Thursday morning

The Rectory will be closed on Thursday and Friday in observance of Thanksgiving

BLOOD DRIVE SIGN-UP on Sunday, November 19th The Youth Group will host a BLOOD DRIVE on Sunday, November 26th from 8:30am to 2:30pm. Please consider donating a pint of blood to help those who desperately need it! Sign up Today. Walk-Ins Welcome...you will need to bring a form of ID with your signature and/or photo, and know your Social Security Number. Those under 17 years old must present a signed parental permission

CHRISTMAS ANGELS-CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR FAMILIES IN NEED - Can you help a local family in need this Christmas? We are aware of about 30 families who are having a tough time making ends meet. Could you provide some presents for a family to make this a Christmas they will remember? A sign up list will be in the front vestibule of the Church at all Masses during the weekend of November 25 & 26. An index card for a family will be posted with each person in the family listed with suggested gifts/sizes. Print your name, phone number and email on the chart next to the family of your choice, take the index card, shop for the family and wrap the presents (if possible, include the gift receipt). Put a tag on each present for the intended recipient, e.g. girl - age 5; mom - size S, etc. All gifts are due no later than Monday, December 11th. Bring the gifts to the Rectory during regular business hours or call/email Gail Morrow (761-7294, gtmorrow@att.net) to arrange a time to meet. Thank you so much for helping others in need this Christmas.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

PRAYER SHAWL REQUESTS- Do you know someone who is ill or bereaved, or is feeling the effects of aging and could use a shawl or lap blanket for comfort and warmth? We will be happy to donate one to them. Please call or email Christine at 761-7243, crosestephens@optimum.net or Maureen at 946-9334, MMCL16@optonline.net to request a shawl or lap blanket. They will be happy to arrange a time to give you

BABY ITEMS NEEDED- We know of a local young woman who is 8 months pregnant and is in great need. She has no family living nearby, is working, but she is having a very hard time making ends meet once her rent is paid. We are hoping to help her out by getting her needed baby items. She knows she is having a boy! She could use baby boy clothes for ages newborn-6 months, newborn diapers, diaper bag, wipes, baby shampoo, lotion, powder, crib sheets/blanket, crib bumper, waterproof mattress cover, baby snowsuit.... Someone already gave her a crib and stroller, so those items are not needed. Please leave all items in the Social Concerns bins. We will be collecting the baby items this weekend and next weekend. Please consider helping this young woman in great need who is about to give birth. Thanks so much!
Questions? Call or email Maureen at 914-946-9334, MMCL16@optonline.net

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKET COLLECTION: Thanksgiving food baskets are being collected this weekend before and after each Mass. Please drop off your items at the front of the school building. Thank you for your generosity. If you have any questions, please contact Anthony Amiano at 914-469-2079.

CHRISTMAS CRAFTS- We will be making Christmas crafts for residents of area nursing homes on Saturday, December 2nd, from 12:30-2:30 in the school cafeteria. Come join us! This is a great activity for individuals as well as families. No special skills required. The crafts we make will go to residents of approx. 6 local nursing homes. Help us to brighten the day of our elderly friends and neighbors. Please call or email Maureen if interested 946-9334, MMCL16@optonline.net Rosary Hill

Thank You
