DIVINE MERCY CONTINUED-

As often as you want to make Me happy, speak to the world about My great and unfathomable mercy. (164) He who does not take advantage of small graces will not receive great ones. (65) First, do not fight against a temptation by yourself, but disclose it to the confessor at once, and then the temptation will lose all its force. Second, during these ordeals do not lose your peace; live in My presence; ask My Mother and the Saints for help. Third, have the certitude that I am looking at you and supporting you. Fourth, do not fear either struggles of the soul or any temptations, because I am supporting you; if only you are willing to fight, know that the victory is always on your side. Fifth, know that by fighting bravely you give Me great glory and amass merits for yourself. Temptation gives you a chance to show Me your fidelity. (1560)

THE GREATEST AMONG US

Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

What is the name of the pope's cathedral? If you said the Vatican, or St. Peter's, you were off by a few miles, since the answer is the Basilica of St. John, the Lateran, the "Mother Church" of all the churches of the world and the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome. It takes its name from the Lateran family, the Trumps of their day, who somehow ran afoul of the Emperor Nero. He seized all their property, including their vast Roman palace and estate. We don't know how Plautius displeased Nero so badly, but eventually all the Lateran property came to Constantine, the first Christian emperor, through his wife, Fausta. Early in the fourth century, when Christianity was at last legalized, Constantine gave the property to the church. Soon the great meeting halls were expanded and adapted.

Over the centuries, the church building has been sacked by armies, ruined by fire, torn down, and rebuilt. The oldest and most unchanged part of the Lateran is a vast, separate baptistery with steps leading down to a huge green basalt pool. Imagine what a triumphal moment the dedication of this public church building was for a community that had worshiped in secret for so long! This Thursday's feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is really about the tradition of consecrating space for worship, and so by extension, a feast for your parish church building and, given the beautiful second reading, for its baptistery as well.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

PRAYER SHAWL REQUESTS- Do you know someone who is ill or bereaved, or is feeling the effects of aging and could use a shawl or lap blanket for comfort and warmth? We will be happy to donate one to them. Please call or email Christine at 761-7243, crosestephens@optimum.net or Maureen at 946-9334, MMCL16@optonline.net to request a shawl or lap blanket. They will be happy to arrange a time to give you

BABY ITEMS NEEDED- We know of a local young woman who is 8 months pregnant and is in great need. She has no family living nearby, is working, but she is having a very hard time making ends meet once her rent is paid. We are hoping to help her out by getting her needed baby items. She knows she is having a boy! She could use baby boy clothes for ages newborn-6 months, newborn diapers, diaper bag, wipes, baby shampoo, lotion, powder, crib sheets/blanket, crib bumper, waterproof mattress cover, baby snowsuit.... Someone already gave her a crib and stroller, so those items are not needed.

Please leave all items in the Social Concerns bins. We will be collecting the baby items this weekend and next weekend. Please consider helping this young woman in great need who is about to give birth. Thanks so much!
Questions? Call or email Maureen at 914-946-9334, MMCL16@optonline.net

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKET COLLECTION: We will once again be collecting Thanksgiving food baskets for people in need this year. The sign-up sheet will be in the front vestibule this weekend of November 11th and 12th, along with a shopping list. We are asking that food be placed in reusable shopping bags, if possible, to make it easier for the families to carry. Please consider helping a local family in need this Thanksgiving. Can't do a full basket? Consider putting one together with a friend or donating a gift card to a local supermarket. Thank you in advance for your generosity. If you have any questions, please contact Anthony Amiano at 914-469-2079.

Thank You
